

Adding Value to Your Team

Students in the History program have numerous areas of study covering the globe, from ancient to contemporary history, and can choose from an assortment of thematic courses, including food and health, politics and revolution, environmental change, crime and justice, gender and sexuality, popular culture, and rural history. This wide range of interests and skills can be applied in many workplaces from government and non-governmental organizations, non-profit and community-based organizations, and the private sector.

University of Guelph Advantage

Guelph's History program offers broad training, adaptable skills, and clear judgment. Students are flexible, intelligent, polished communicators, researchers and problem solvers who follow their passions in business, law, education, civil service, journalism, and the arts. Due to the interdisciplinary nature of Guelph's History program, students develop an extensive range of skills including data gathering, facilitation and presentation, research design and strong assessment, collaboration, and adaptability skills.

Our co-op process responds to your needs. Employers can post, hire, and interview throughout the semester and our students are available for 4-month work terms. The Experience Guelph hiring tool makes hiring Guelph co-op students easy!
